The Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills Announces New Board of Directors

A new team of women is ready to helm the Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills.

The group announced that Isabelle Felix of Maplewood will be the board's 107th president with a one-year term.

The board is also comprised of the following people:

Larisa Holderied of Maplewood, President-Elect and Community VP; Chye Boon of Short Hills, Treasurer; Abbe Diana of Maplewood, Assistant Treasurer; Brittany Heaslip of West Orange, Assistant Community VP; Pegeen Williams of Livingston, Membership VP; Kara Grieco of Springfield, Assistant Membership VP; Christine Skalkotos of Short Hills, Recording Secretary; Katherine Galli of Livingston, Fundraising Council Chair; Lauren Sattler of West Orange, Assistant Fundraising Council Chair; Sharon Polese of Maplewood, Communications Council Chair; Jessica Simpson-Cook of Basking Ridge, Assistant Communications Chair; Sara D'Andrea of Maplewood and Michelle Solgan of South Orange, Sustainer Council Chairs

The Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills is focused on addressing the basic needs of low-income children, pre-K through 8th grade in our service area. Our community service work is dedicated to closing the gap on food insecurity, essential clothing needs, school supply gaps and hygiene needs of school-aged children living in poverty.

"The Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills plays a vital in the community because in addition to providing direct service in our service areas, we also provide leadership and advocacy training opportunities for our members and members of the community at large," said Ms. Felix. "We are able to do this because we are part of a powerful network of more than 140,000 women in 291 communities in the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada and Mexico who share the same mission. Collectively, we constitute one of the largest and most effective volunteer organizations in the world."

JLOSH serves the communities of East Orange, Livingston, Maplewood, Millburn, Orange, Short Hills, South Orange, Springfield and West Orange. For more information, visit the JLOSH website.
